Making your return from expatriation a success

Mobile collaborator

- Individual program
- 7 hours (flexible)
- In person or remotely

Prerequisites

This program is intended for employees in the 4 months preceding or following their return to France (or to their country of origin)

> “I felt lost and very out of step with the headquarters. This coaching gave me back my confidence and allowed me to position myself much more clearly in relation to my colleagues and the hierarchy” - François, back from Schenzen
> “I was at a turning point in my career and HR made me understand that my involvement would be key to finding a position at headquarters. With the help of the coach, I conducted a real internal job search. I defined a strategy, improved my tools and I felt confident” - Luc, back from Mexico

Target audience

Employees wishing to anticipate the return stage and be involved in their professional and personal reintegration

If you have a disability or specific needs, please contact Alix Carnot, our Disability Advisor, by email: alix.carnot@expatcommunication.com

Educational objectives

1. Highlight your experience abroad, your new skills and assets.
2. Finding your bearings to integrate well into your new position.
3. Become aware of the risks and discover the key factors for success upon return.

Tools and working methods

The work alternates between discussions, personal questioning, educational tools, filmed testimonies and practical advice.

Our coaches-experts

The experts at Expat Communication's Coach Academy are selected, trained, certified, and supervised following a multi-month program. They receive ongoing training and work as part of a team. This is our main guarantee for the quality of our programs.

Club Expat Premium

In addition, the participant has access to the Premium Expat Club, an essential resource center for developing leadership in international mobility and maintaining work-life balance.

Expertise

More than 25 years of expertise in international mobility through the personal experience of our coaches and colleagues, the publications of our Expat Lab and the surveys of our Expat Communication Barometer.

Expat Community

Mutual assistance from a community of more than 40,000 expatriates in the networks run by Expat Communication.
